

If you use the function wizard to multiply matrices or compute an inverse, make sure the array box in the lower left of this window is checked.

In the array boxes, put in the range that specifies the matrix.

